Plays founded on life and scenes in Ireland have for many years been among the most popular productions of the stage. And in spite of their age and frequent repetition they hold their own with modern drama. Irish character, Irish wit, Irish songs, always appeal to all classes of play goers. These elements are found in "Rory of the Hills" to be presented at the opera house tonight.

There are also sensational scenes, pathos and plenty of action. Light and shade happily blended in this play. "Rory of the Hills" does not deal with political themes. It abounds with stirring scenes, as founded in the "Old Country" with plenty of heroic action, love episodes, pathos, comedy and is noted for its great "heart interest."

Chloroform and romantic is the story of "Rory of the Hills." The play is a vehicle for the re-appearance of Brin's sweetest singer Bernard Daly and is marked by the strength of its comedy, and gives this charming player an opportunity to exercise his varied talents. Special scenery has been constructed and original costumes designed for the play. No better character study of Ireland has been written and produced in years.

Simplified Debate.

"Are you going to attempt to answer all the charges made against you?"

"Certainly," replied Senator Sorghum. "Answering charges these days is easy. All you've got to do is say, 'You're another.'"—Washington Star.

A Definition.

"What is the difference between preferred and common stock?"

"Well, if you buy the common you lose your money right off, but if you buy preferred there is a little longer delay about it."—Judge.

John Robins, Mayor.

He Used His Knife.

A short time ago a doctor was a guest at a dinner in one of Philadelphia's most exclusive homes. When the last course had been served and the cigars were being smoked the doctor reached down into his trousers pocket and extracted a penknife. Slowly he opened a blade. To the horror of all the select persons present, it was the finger nail blade. Every one gasped. Could it be that Dr. — would so far forget himself as to manicure his nails at the table? All watched with bated breath. Slowly the doctor reached out and secured a match which was near his place. Then he deliberately struck the match on the rough part of the nail file and lit his cigar.

Finding First Relief from Stomach Misery

GET SOME DIAPEPSIN

Harmless, Digestive and Antacid Overcomes Stomach Trouble—Get Some Diapepsin and Have This Misery Over With Forever.

Every family here ought to keep some Diapepsin in the house, as any one of you may have an attack of indigestion or stomach trouble at any time, day or night.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't tempt you, or if little you do eat seems to fill you, or if you have a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Ask your pharmacist for a 50-cent case of Diapepsin and take one or two after supper tonight. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal gripings. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Diapepsin is a certain cure for all stomach misery, because it will take hold of your food and digest it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Actual, prompt relief for all your stomach misery is at your pharmacist's, waiting for you.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to cure a case of dyspepsia or indigestion.

MONTPELIER.

There are sixty delinquent taxpayers in Montpelier who would be able to vote at the city election if they don't pay up before next Tuesday.

S. S. Ballard, who has been spending the past few weeks in Florida, and who was expected home this morning, has the information that he will remain in Washington, D. C., until after the inauguration of President-elect Taft.

John H. Senter has received notification of his appointment as a member of the committee on jurisprudence and law reform of the imperial council of the Order of the Mystic Shrine of North America. The committee, which is the most important of those of the imperial council, comprises four members and Mr. Senter is the only one selected in New England, which is a high honor for him and also for Mt. Sinai Temple.

DEEDS, NOT WORDS.

Barre People Have Absolute Proof of Deeds at Home.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills, for Barre kidney sufferers, have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Barre people who have been cured to stay cured.

Mrs. Annie Gibb, 31 Brooklyn street, Barre, Vt., says: "I am just as strong in my praises of Doan's Kidney Pills today as when I recommended them several years ago. They cured me at that time and I am glad to say there has been no return of my old trouble. For over a year I had more or less backache, this being the result of disordered kidneys. If I brought any strain on the muscles of my back, sharp pains would seize me and I also suffered at times from headaches and dizzy spells. When I overworked or caught cold, my kidneys were always more intense. I read a great deal about Doan's Kidney Pills and decided to try them, procured a box at E. A. Brown's drug store. Before I had finished the contents, the pains in my back were relieved and I felt better in every way."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McBurm Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.
